Part 1: Reading — Career Day at School

Today is Career Day at Greenfield School. Five people come to talk about their jobs.

Mr Harris is a doctor. "I work in a hospital," he says. "I help sick people get better. I check their temperature, listen to their chest, and give them medicine."

Mrs Lopez is a firefighter. "I work at a fire station," she says. "When there is a fire, I drive the fire engine very fast. My job is dangerous, but I save people!"

Mr Chen is a teacher. "I work in a school," he says. "I teach maths and science. The best part is when children say, 'I understand!'"

Miss Baker is a vet. "I work in an animal clinic. I help sick animals — dogs, cats, rabbits, and sometimes birds."

Mr Okafor is a police officer. "I work at a police station. I keep people safe."

The teacher asks: "What do you want to be when you grow up?" "I want to be a vet!" says Lily. "I want to be a firefighter!" says Tom.
