Reading: Zara's Magic Words

Read the story. The magic words are in orange bold.

My name is Zara. I am seven years old. My teacher says there are magic words. They are not real magic. But they make people happy!

In the morning, I see my friend Lily. I say: "Hello, Lily!" Lily smiles. Hello is a magic word!

At lunch, I want more juice. I say: "More juice, please." The lunch lady gives me juice. She smiles. Please is a magic word!

I say: "Thank you!" The lunch lady says: "You are welcome!" Two magic words!

Oh no! I bump into Tom. I say: "Sorry, Tom!" Tom says: "It is OK." Sorry is a magic word!

I want to ask my teacher a question. She is talking. I wait and say: "Excuse me, Mrs Park." She looks at me and smiles.

There is a new boy in my class. His name is Sam. He has no crayons. I share my crayons with him. Sam says: "Thank you, Zara! You are kind!" I feel happy.

At the end of the day, I help my teacher clean the board. She says: "Thank you, Zara!"

I go home. I say: "Goodbye, everyone!" My friends wave.

Magic words are easy. Please. Thank you. Sorry. Excuse me. Hello. Goodbye. They make everyone smile!
