☐ SPORTS DAY! ☐

Read this story. The vocabulary words are in gold bold.

Today is Sports Day at school! Everyone is excited. "Let's start with a running race!" says the teacher.

Five children stand at the start line: Tom, Mia, Noah, Lily, and Sara. "Ready, set, GO!"

They all run very fast. Tom runs the fastest. He is first! He is the winner! He gets a gold medal. ☐

Mia is right behind Tom. She is second! She gets a silver medal. ☐

Noah comes next. He is third! He gets a bronze medal. ☐

Lily is fourth. Sara is fifth. They don't get medals, but the teacher says: "You all did a great job! The order doesn't matter. What matters is that you tried your best!"

Next, it is time for the egg and spoon race. "Whose turn is it?" asks the teacher.

Sara goes first this time. She walks very carefully. The egg doesn't fall! She is the winner!

Tom says: "I was first in running, but Sara is first in egg and spoon! Everyone can be first at something!"

The teacher gives everyone a sticker. "You are ALL winners today!" ☐☐
